

Jesus Teaches Forgiveness

Perhaps no single word better describes a Christian than “forgiven.” Jesus paid a debt He did not have to pay and that we could never pay in order to secure our salvation. No forgiveness can ever surpass that which God did through the work of Jesus to make eternal life possible for a rebellious humanity. Why is it then that Christians often struggle with forgiving others?

This month our children will learn through the parable of the unforgiving servant that a person forgiven by God, through the work of Jesus Christ, will give unmistakable evidence of his gratitude when dealing with others. This holds true even when the debt or trespass is great. It also teaches us to forgive in order to be in right relationship with God.

Main Passage Matthew 18:21-35

Memory Verse

Mark 11:25

Younger version

Forgive others so that God will forgive you.

Older version

And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.

Jesus Teaches Forgiveness

Perhaps no single word better describes a Christian than “forgiven.” Jesus paid a debt He did not have to pay and that we could never pay in order to secure our salvation. No forgiveness can ever surpass that which God did through the work of Jesus to make eternal life possible for a rebellious humanity. Why is it then that Christians often struggle with forgiving others?

This month our children will learn through the parable of the unforgiving servant that a person forgiven by God, through the work of Jesus Christ, will give unmistakable evidence of his gratitude when dealing with others. This holds true even when the debt or trespass is great. It also teaches us to forgive in order to be in right relationship with God.

Main Passage Matthew 18:21-35

Memory Verse

Mark 11:25

Younger version

Forgive others so that God will forgive you.

Older version

And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.

Jesus Teaches Forgiveness

Perhaps no single word better describes a Christian than “forgiven.” Jesus paid a debt He did not have to pay and that we could never pay in order to secure our salvation. No forgiveness can ever surpass that which God did through the work of Jesus to make eternal life possible for a rebellious humanity. Why is it then that Christians often struggle with forgiving others?

This month our children will learn through the parable of the unforgiving servant that a person forgiven by God, through the work of Jesus Christ, will give unmistakable evidence of his gratitude when dealing with others. This holds true even when the debt or trespass is great. It also teaches us to forgive in order to be in right relationship with God.

Main Passage Matthew 18:21-35

Memory Verse

Mark 11:25

Younger version

Forgive others so that God will forgive you.

Older version

And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.

Jesus Teaches Forgiveness

Perhaps no single word better describes a Christian than “forgiven.” Jesus paid a debt He did not have to pay and that we could never pay in order to secure our salvation. No forgiveness can ever surpass that which God did through the work of Jesus to make eternal life possible for a rebellious humanity. Why is it then that Christians often struggle with forgiving others?

This month our children will learn through the parable of the unforgiving servant that a person forgiven by God, through the work of Jesus Christ, will give unmistakable evidence of his gratitude when dealing with others. This holds true even when the debt or trespass is great. It also teaches us to forgive in order to be in right relationship with God.

Main Passage Matthew 18:21-35

Memory Verse

Mark 11:25

Younger version

Forgive others so that God will forgive you.

Older version

And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.