

Jeremiah

Our exploration of Jeremiah begins a three-month study covering the fall of Judah to the Babylonians, their exile in Babylon and the eventual rebuilding of the temple and the walls of Jerusalem. Through Jeremiah, God spoke, imploring His people to turn back to Him and away from their evil practices. Ultimately, Judah did not listen and they suffered the consequences of their sin. However, even before judgment was exercised, Jeremiah spoke of the grace of God. God already had a plan to redeem His people: first by restoring them to their land after the exile and, ultimately, through Jesus, "...a righteous Branch of David." (Jer. 23:5).

Our children will learn about the call of Jeremiah. They will learn that Jeremiah was faithful to his call even though he lived in difficult times and circumstances. God promised to deliver Jeremiah through the difficult times and He did. They will also learn that God had a plan for Judah's future despite their unfaithfulness.

Main Passage Jeremiah 1:4-19, 36:1-26, 39, 23:5-8

Memory Verse Jeremiah 33:3

Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and wondrous things you do not know.

Jeremiah

Our exploration of Jeremiah begins a three-month study covering the fall of Judah to the Babylonians, their exile in Babylon and the eventual rebuilding of the temple and the walls of Jerusalem. Through Jeremiah, God spoke, imploring His people to turn back to Him and away from their evil practices. Ultimately, Judah did not listen and they suffered the consequences of their sin. However, even before judgment was exercised, Jeremiah spoke of the grace of God. God already had a plan to redeem His people: first by restoring them to their land after the exile and, ultimately, through Jesus, "...a righteous Branch of David." (Jer. 23:5).

Our children will learn about the call of Jeremiah. They will learn that Jeremiah was faithful to his call even though he lived in difficult times and circumstances. God promised to deliver Jeremiah through the difficult times and He did. They will also learn that God had a plan for Judah's future despite their unfaithfulness.

Main Passage Jeremiah 1:4-19, 36:1-26, 39, 23:5-8

Memory Verse Jeremiah 33:3

Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and wondrous things you do not know.

Jeremiah

Our exploration of Jeremiah begins a three-month study covering the fall of Judah to the Babylonians, their exile in Babylon and the eventual rebuilding of the temple and the walls of Jerusalem. Through Jeremiah, God spoke, imploring His people to turn back to Him and away from their evil practices. Ultimately, Judah did not listen and they suffered the consequences of their sin. However, even before judgment was exercised, Jeremiah spoke of the grace of God. God already had a plan to redeem His people: first by restoring them to their land after the exile and, ultimately, through Jesus, "...a righteous Branch of David." (Jer. 23:5).

Our children will learn about the call of Jeremiah. They will learn that Jeremiah was faithful to his call even though he lived in difficult times and circumstances. God promised to deliver Jeremiah through the difficult times and He did. They will also learn that God had a plan for Judah's future despite their unfaithfulness.

Main Passage Jeremiah 1:4-19, 36:1-26, 39, 23:5-8

Memory Verse Jeremiah 33:3

Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and wondrous things you do not know.

Jeremiah

Our exploration of Jeremiah begins a three-month study covering the fall of Judah to the Babylonians, their exile in Babylon and the eventual rebuilding of the temple and the walls of Jerusalem. Through Jeremiah, God spoke, imploring His people to turn back to Him and away from their evil practices. Ultimately, Judah did not listen and they suffered the consequences of their sin. However, even before judgment was exercised, Jeremiah spoke of the grace of God. God already had a plan to redeem His people: first by restoring them to their land after the exile and, ultimately, through Jesus, "...a righteous Branch of David." (Jer. 23:5).

Our children will learn about the call of Jeremiah. They will learn that Jeremiah was faithful to his call even though he lived in difficult times and circumstances. God promised to deliver Jeremiah through the difficult times and He did. They will also learn that God had a plan for Judah's future despite their unfaithfulness.

Main Passage Jeremiah 1:4-19, 36:1-26, 39, 23:5-8

Memory Verse Jeremiah 33:3

Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and wondrous things you do not know.