

The Early Church & Peter is Rescued

The first chapter of the book of Acts (also known as The Acts of the Apostles) begins with an ending. Jesus' time on earth ended when he ascended into the sky, and left his disciples staring at the clouds. They must have wondered what would happen next. Jesus had commanded them to continue His work by telling others about Him. He also promised to send a "Helper." On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descended upon them and the New Testament church was born. The early church serves as an example to all modern churches through their selfless giving, prayer and evangelism. Students will also learn how the early church exercised their faith in praying for the miraculous release of Peter, who was scheduled to be executed.

Main Passage Acts 4:32-37 Believers share
Acts 6:1-7 Deacons appointed
Acts 12:1-19 Peter freed from prison

Memory Verse Acts 2:42

And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayers.
