

Mary and Martha

True friendships are rare in life. Who are children associate with can greatly impact their lives. Despite His full-time ministry, Jesus developed meaningful friendships not only with the disciples, but with three siblings: Mary, Martha and Lazarus. We can learn much about how God views friendship through Jesus' relationships with His friends. This is a wonderful opportunity to teach our children that it is important to carefully choose Godly Christian friends and to seek to build Godly relationships.

Main Passages

Luke 10:38-42 Jesus visits Mary & Martha

John 12:1-11 Mary anoints Jesus' feet

Memory Verse John 15:15b

I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have heard from My Father.

Mary and Martha

True friendships are rare in life. Who are children associate with can greatly impact their lives. Despite His full-time ministry, Jesus developed meaningful friendships not only with the disciples, but with three siblings: Mary, Martha and Lazarus. We can learn much about how God views friendship through Jesus' relationships with His friends. This is a wonderful opportunity to teach our children that it is important to carefully choose Godly Christian friends and to seek to build Godly relationships.

Main Passages

Luke 10:38-42 Jesus visits Mary & Martha

John 12:1-11 Mary anoints Jesus' feet

Memory Verse John 15:15b

I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have heard from My Father.

Mary and Martha

True friendships are rare in life. Who are children associate with can greatly impact their lives. Despite His full-time ministry, Jesus developed meaningful friendships not only with the disciples, but with three siblings: Mary, Martha and Lazarus. We can learn much about how God views friendship through Jesus' relationships with His friends. This is a wonderful opportunity to teach our children that it is important to carefully choose Godly Christian friends and to seek to build Godly relationships.

Main Passages

Luke 10:38-42 Jesus visits Mary & Martha

John 12:1-11 Mary anoints Jesus' feet

Memory Verse John 15:15b

I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have heard from My Father.

Mary and Martha

True friendships are rare in life. Who are children associate with can greatly impact their lives. Despite His full-time ministry, Jesus developed meaningful friendships not only with the disciples, but with three siblings: Mary, Martha and Lazarus. We can learn much about how God views friendship through Jesus' relationships with His friends. This is a wonderful opportunity to teach our children that it is important to carefully choose Godly Christian friends and to seek to build Godly relationships.

Main Passages

Luke 10:38-42 Jesus visits Mary & Martha

John 12:1-11 Mary anoints Jesus' feet

Memory Verse John 15:15b

I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have heard from My Father.