

Faith of Job

Everyone eventually asks the question, "Why do some suffer more than others?" Tragedy and suffering are everyday realities, yet many struggle to make sense of events which do not appear to have a purpose. Often the wicked prosper at the expense of the weak. The Bible teaches that nothing can happen outside of God's control and that seemingly pointless sufferings will lead to good. This month our children will study the story of Job and learn that even in the midst of tragedy, God is still in control.

Like Job, we may never understand why certain things happen to us, but we can trust our Lord. We can know that God is not malicious, but is loving towards us. The trials of this world are a result of sin, though not always our personal sin. Life circumstances for all, reflect man's choice, God's will, and Satan's rebellion. God, however, rules eternal and, in light of eternity, any suffering on earth will be fleeting by compare.

Main Passage Job 1:1-2:10 Testing of Job
 Job 42:1-17 Job Restored

Memory Verse Job 1:22

Throughout all this Job did not sin or blame God for anything.

Faith of Job

Everyone eventually asks the question, "Why do some suffer more than others?" Tragedy and suffering are everyday realities, yet many struggle to make sense of events which do not appear to have a purpose. Often the wicked prosper at the expense of the weak. The Bible teaches that nothing can happen outside of God's control and that seemingly pointless sufferings will lead to good. This month our children will study the story of Job and learn that even in the midst of tragedy, God is still in control.

Like Job, we may never understand why certain things happen to us, but we can trust our Lord. We can know that God is not malicious, but is loving towards us. The trials of this world are a result of sin, though not always our personal sin. Life circumstances for all, reflect man's choice, God's will, and Satan's rebellion. God, however, rules eternal and, in light of eternity, any suffering on earth will be fleeting by compare.

Main Passage Job 1:1-2:10 Testing of Job
 Job 42:1-17 Job Restored

Memory Verse Job 1:22

Throughout all this Job did not sin or blame God for anything.

Faith of Job

Everyone eventually asks the question, "Why do some suffer more than others?" Tragedy and suffering are everyday realities, yet many struggle to make sense of events which do not appear to have a purpose. Often the wicked prosper at the expense of the weak. The Bible teaches that nothing can happen outside of God's control and that seemingly pointless sufferings will lead to good. This month our children will study the story of Job and learn that even in the midst of tragedy, God is still in control.

Like Job, we may never understand why certain things happen to us, but we can trust our Lord. We can know that God is not malicious, but is loving towards us. The trials of this world are a result of sin, though not always our personal sin. Life circumstances for all, reflect man's choice, God's will, and Satan's rebellion. God, however, rules eternal and, in light of eternity, any suffering on earth will be fleeting by compare.

Main Passage Job 1:1-2:10 Testing of Job
 Job 42:1-17 Job Restored

Memory Verse Job 1:22

Throughout all this Job did not sin or blame God for anything.

Faith of Job

Everyone eventually asks the question, "Why do some suffer more than others?" Tragedy and suffering are everyday realities, yet many struggle to make sense of events which do not appear to have a purpose. Often the wicked prosper at the expense of the weak. The Bible teaches that nothing can happen outside of God's control and that seemingly pointless sufferings will lead to good. This month our children will study the story of Job and learn that even in the midst of tragedy, God is still in control.

Like Job, we may never understand why certain things happen to us, but we can trust our Lord. We can know that God is not malicious, but is loving towards us. The trials of this world are a result of sin, though not always our personal sin. Life circumstances for all, reflect man's choice, God's will, and Satan's rebellion. God, however, rules eternal and, in light of eternity, any suffering on earth will be fleeting by compare.

Main Passage Job 1:1-2:10 Testing of Job
 Job 42:1-17 Job Restored

Memory Verse Job 1:22

Throughout all this Job did not sin or blame God for anything.