

Christmas - Shepherds

Each December Christians around the world celebrate the birth of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Two of the four gospels, Matthew and Luke describe Jesus' childhood, but only Luke talks specifically about the birth of Jesus.

His arrival came under the humblest of circumstances. Despite being the King of Kings, He was not born in a royal palace. His arrival was not announced by earthly heralds throughout a kingdom. Instead, He was born in a town that would not be His home, slept in a feeding trough (manger), and was visited by the fringe of society (the shepherds). This, however, was all part of God's plan as God became human in order to secure salvation for all who would believe on His name.

Main Passage Luke 2:8-20. 39-40

Memory Verse Isaiah 41:10

Younger version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

Older version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you; I will help you
I will hold on to you with my righteous right hand.

Christmas - Shepherds

Each December Christians around the world celebrate the birth of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Two of the four gospels, Matthew and Luke describe Jesus' childhood, but only Luke talks specifically about the birth of Jesus.

His arrival came under the humblest of circumstances. Despite being the King of Kings, He was not born in a royal palace. His arrival was not announced by earthly heralds throughout a kingdom. Instead, He was born in a town that would not be His home, slept in a feeding trough (manger), and was visited by the fringe of society (the shepherds). This, however, was all part of God's plan as God became human in order to secure salvation for all who would believe on His name.

Main Passage Luke 2:8-20. 39-40

Memory Verse Isaiah 41:10

Younger version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

Older version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you; I will help you
I will hold on to you with my righteous right hand.

Christmas - Shepherds

Each December Christians around the world celebrate the birth of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Two of the four gospels, Matthew and Luke describe Jesus' childhood, but only Luke talks specifically about the birth of Jesus.

His arrival came under the humblest of circumstances. Despite being the King of Kings, He was not born in a royal palace. His arrival was not announced by earthly heralds throughout a kingdom. Instead, He was born in a town that would not be His home, slept in a feeding trough (manger), and was visited by the fringe of society (the shepherds). This, however, was all part of God's plan as God became human in order to secure salvation for all who would believe on His name.

Main Passage Luke 2:8-20. 39-40

Memory Verse Isaiah 41:10

Younger version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

Older version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you; I will help you
I will hold on to you with my righteous right hand.

Christmas - Shepherds

Each December Christians around the world celebrate the birth of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Two of the four gospels, Matthew and Luke describe Jesus' childhood, but only Luke talks specifically about the birth of Jesus.

His arrival came under the humblest of circumstances. Despite being the King of Kings, He was not born in a royal palace. His arrival was not announced by earthly heralds throughout a kingdom. Instead, He was born in a town that would not be His home, slept in a feeding trough (manger), and was visited by the fringe of society (the shepherds). This, however, was all part of God's plan as God became human in order to secure salvation for all who would believe on His name.

Main Passage Luke 2:8-20. 39-40

Memory Verse Isaiah 41:10

Younger version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

Older version

Do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be afraid, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you; I will help you
I will hold on to you with my righteous right hand.